

EVANGELIST EVELYN TURRENTINE-AGEE

Evangelist, Recording Artist,
Wife, Mother, Entrepreneur

2006 Stellar Award Nominee
2004 Stellar Award Winner – Traditional Female Vocalist of the Year
2003 Stellar Award Nominee – Traditional Female Vocalist of the Year
2003 American Gospel Quartet Convention – Favorite Female Vocalist
2002 Gospel Insider Awards Nominee –
Traditional Female Vocalist and Traditional CD of the Year
2002 Stellar Award Nominee
Traditional Female Vocalist and Traditional CD of the Year
2002 GTM Awards – Favorite Female Quartet
2002 BMI Performing Rights Administration Award –
Most Performed Urban Gospel Song for 2001 (God Did It)
2002 NAGPM Gold Cup Award – Female Gospel Artist of the Year
2001 Soul Train Lady of Soul Award Nominee

Evelyn is a native of St. Louis, Missouri now living in Detroit, Michigan. This energetic, multifaceted lady wears many hats daily as a wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, homemaker, entrepreneur, evangelist, and recording artist. She manages her own career, owns her own record label and spends many hours ministering to and praying for others on a daily basis.

This traditional gospel artist has come to be loved by her fans for her contributions in the quartet community; and her industry contemporaries have dubbed her the “Queen of Quartet”. However, Evelyn doesn’t limit her music to any category as she considers it “just gospel!” in its traditional style. She says, “My love and my joy as well as, I believe, my anointing is in “just churchin” in my music”. She is known and favored for her humble, pleasant, genuine attitude and her love for God and people.

Evelyn’s music has been among some of the top requested gospel music on radio and also received major rotation on top syndicated programs including Walt Baby Love’s “Gospel Traxx”, Inspirations Across America, the Russ Parr Show, the Tom Joiner Show, Sheridan Gospel Network’s “The Light”, ABC Radio Network’s “Rejoice”, and Radio One Gospel Network. Her sophomore album, God Did It, was recorded on Evelyn’s own record label, War on Sin (WOS Records) and charted on Billboard Magazine’s “Top Gospel Album” charts for over 30 weeks. Gospel media publications and columns such as D. Blackmon’s “Gospel Insider”, Urban Network Magazine, Billboard Magazine’s “Inside the Spirit”, Gospel Today, Gospel Industry Today, Behind the Scene, Gospel Truth and Urban Network’s “Inspired” magazines have all given recognition to this anointed, talented woman of God and her music ministry.

This anointed artist appears on many gospel compilation projects as a solo artist and also appears on other artists’ projects as guest solo artist. Though Evelyn has been blessed to be signed with several major record labels and is still being sought out by some of the nations largest gospel labels, she has returned to her own independent label to release a new project entitled, Double Exposure, in the spring of 2007.

Evelyn is in demand for concerts, revivals, conferences, television shows, etc. not only as a singing artist but also as evangelist, speaker, hostess, etc. She sometimes makes over 5 personal appearances weekly and practically non-stop. Whenever Evelyn is asked how she has been able to achieve such recognition, she will simply reply, GOD DID IT.

Discography:

Double Exposure – WOS Records - 2007
Go Through – Light Records - 2005
It’s Already Done – AIR Gospel - 2003
God Did It Live – The Testimonies – Worldwide Gospel - 2002
God Did It – WOS Records - 2000
In God’s Own Time – CGI Records - 1992
